25X1

- On 8 August 1950 no military activity was observed in the area of the camp in the woods at Druck on the Leitha River (P 49/X 77). The barracks and garage southeast of the railroad station appeared to be vacant. Soviet soldiers were seen only occasionally near the Kommandatura on Fischamenderstrasse and in the town. There was no traffic around the signal depot.

25X1

- There was no military traffic in Kaisersteinbruch (P 48/X 67) and its vicinity on 8 August 1950. The makeshift garages which had been established in damaged houses were vacant. Some small temporary barracks of the camp east of the town were apparently occupied by officers. (2)

Comments.

- Previous reports also reported a light occupation.

25X1

- This is the Altes Lager at the northeastern outskirts of the town. In late June 1950 heavy military traffic in Kaisersteinbruch and the camp.
